HAPPY EASTER!!

FROM FR. HOI AND THE STAFF

EASTER REFLECTION: Through His Resurrection Jesus Christ was made known to us as God's Son in power, for He was obedient unto death and exalted as Lord of all. God chose His Son to be the one to suffer and die for our sins. Because of His obedience He was raised up as Lord of all. By conquering death through His own power in His Resurrection, Jesus has shown Himself Master of life and death. Therefore He is true God and true Man, our Savior.

By His Death and Resurrection Jesus redeemed mankind from slavery to sin and to the devil. In obedience to His Father's Will He gave Himself for us in His Passion and arose from the dead that He might redeem us from sin and make us a people pleasing to the Father. He is the Messiah, God's own Son. He often said that what He was doing was done that the Scriptures might be fulfilled, because He saw His Father's Will in them.

We were slaves of the devil because of original sin and because of our personal sins. But Jesus made us free with the freedom of the children of God, for by His Resurrection He destroyed death and gave us the life of grace. Risen truly, the Lord gives us the Divine life of grace and pours out His Holy Spirit upon us.

Each of the Gospel episodes, as we read them during the Easter Season, centers on an all-important appearance to the Apostles in which they are commissioned for their future task, namely, to be witnesses of the Lord, Who is alive and will be with us until the end of the world (Mk 28:16-20). This is the Pascal message to all Christians.

Following the example of the Bible, Christians celebrate the mystery of our Lord's Resurrection for fifty days. The Lord's Ascension and Pentecost are the final memorial days. St. Paul says, "Christ our Paschal Lamb, has been sacrificed; let us feast with joy" (1Cor 5:6-8).

"he Son of Man will be handed over to the chief priests and scribes, who will condemn Him to death. They will deliver Him to the Gentiles to be mocked and flogged and crucified. But on the third day He will be raised up." - Mt 20: 18-19

"In the time after His Suffering He showed Himself to {the Apostles} and gave many convincing proofs that He was alive. He appeared to them over the course of forty days and spoke to them about Kingdom of God."

Acts 1:3

PRAYER TO OUR RISEN SAVIOR

Jesus, Son of God, I thank You for accepting the Cross and freeing us from the power of the enemy. I believe that by Your Resurrection You conquered the power of death and opened for us the way to eternal life.

I thank You for having redeemed me and for making me a child of God.

Look upon me with love. Raise me up and renew my life by the Spirit You have given me. May I follow You in Your risen life.

Draw me to the life where Your Spirit makes all life complete. May I come at last to share the glory of Your Resurrection in heaven.

"Do not abandon yourselves to despair. We are the Easter people and halleluiah is our song." — Pope St. John Paul II
