helps us understand that our sins are buried and washed away as we die with Jesus, and we are filled with divine light and life as we rise from immersion in the water or are cleansed by the pouring. • The Anointing with Sacred Chrism - The celebrant anoints the newly baptized with the sacred Chrism, so that united with God's people the person may remain forever a member of Christ, who is Priest, Prophet, and King. • Reception of the White Garment and the Candle - Following the Anointing with Chrism, the minister of Baptism presents the newly baptized with a white garment and a candle. The white garment shows that the newly baptized have put on Christ and have risen with Him. To be clothed in the baptismal white garment is to be clothed in Christ's protective love. Included in this ceremony is the admonition to keep the garment unstained by sin. "They have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb." (Rev. 7:14). The candle is lit from the Paschal Candle, which represents the Risen Christ. The lighted candle reminds the newly baptized of the light of Christ they have received. It also reminds us that all those baptized in Christ are to be lights for the world. These 2 symbols at Baptism appear again in the Church's funeral liturgy in the forms of the white pall covering the casket and the lighted Paschal Candle, which ordinarily stand near the casket. This is to remind us that the salvation and new life promised at Baptism can now be experienced fully by the one who has gone to God.

SACRAMENTS OF INITIATION: Baptism, Confirmation, and the Eucharist— are the foundation of the Christian life.

"Baptism, the Eucharist, and the sacrament of Confirmation together constitute the 'sacraments of Christian initiation,' whose unity must be safeguarded" (CCC, no 1285).

In His dialogue with Nicodemus, Jesus taught that Baptism was necessary for salvation. "No one can enter the Kingdom of God without begin born of water and Spirit" (Jn 3:5). After His Resurrection, Jesus met with the eleven Apostles and gave them the commission to preach the Gospel and baptize, telling them, "Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved" (Mk 16:16).

The word baptism in its origins is Greek and means "Immersion" and "bath." Immersion in water is a sign of death, and emersion out of the water means new life. To bathe in water is also to undergo cleansing. St. Paul sums up this truth when he says, "You were buried with Him in baptism, in which you were also raised with Him through faith in the power of God, who raised Him from the dead" (Col 2:12). The origin and foundation of Christian Baptism is Jesus. Before starting His public ministry, Jesus submitted Himself to the baptism given by John the Baptist. The waters did not purify Him; He cleansed the waters. "He come to sanctify the Jordan for our sake...to begin a Liturgy of the Hors, I, 634). Jesus' immersion in the water is a sign for all human beings of the need to die to themselves to do God's will. Jesus did not need to be baptized because He was totally faithful to the will of His Father and free from sin. However, He wanted to show His solidarity with human beings in order to baptize all nations, He established the means by which people would die to sin—Original and actual—and begin to live a new life with God. The eight major elements in the baptismal ceremony teaches us the meaning of this Sacrament of Initiation and helps us appreciate our life in Christ. Signs and symbol have their own capacity to communicate their meaning. Of course, the Sacrament is more than in instructive symbol; it accomplishes what it signifies.

• The Sign of the Cross - the celebrant traces the Sign of the Cross on the forehead of the one being baptized. This recalls Christ's saving death and the redemption it brought. Baptism is a Sacrament of salvation. • Reading from Scripture - Proclaiming the Word of God in the midst of the community sheds divine light on the celebration and is meant to build the faith of all the participants. One of the traditional names for Baptism is "Illumination." The Holy Spirit fills the heart and mind with the light of revealed truth and enables the response of faith. • Exorcism and Anointing - Baptism liberates us from sin. An exorcism prayer is recited over the one being baptized, preparing the person to renounce sin and be released from evil. The celebrant anoints the person to be baptized with the Oil of Catechumens. In this way, the person is being called to renounce sin and to leave behind the domination of the power of evil. • Blessing the Baptismal Water - Baptismal water is blessed at the Easter Vigil. Outside the Easter Season, the water used for Baptism can also be blessed at each celebration. The blessing prayer asks the Father "that through His Son the power of the Holy Spirit may be sent upon the waster, so that those who will be baptized may be 'born of water and the Spirit'" (CCC, no. 1238). • Renunciation of Sin and Profession of Faith - Those being baptized are asked to reject sin and Satan, and to profess their faith in the Triune God. In the case of infants, parents, godparents, and the entire community present so this on behalf of those who cannot yet speak for themselves. • The Essential Rite of the Sacrament - The priest or deacon either pours water 3 times on the person's head or immerses the candidate in water 3 times, accompanied by the words, "I baptize you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." The ritual of immersion or washing
