4TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

“I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold. These also I must lead, and they will hear my voice, and there will be one flock, one shepherd. This is why the Father loves me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again.” - Jn 10:16-17

OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE MISSION STATEMENT: In sharing with others our faith, experience, and earthly goods, we grow in faith and are living the missionary call that goes out to all believers. Our pastor, Fr. Hoi Tran, our ministers, and all our parishioners extend our arms in welcome to all others not in our worshipping community to worship with us and to assist us with your prayers and charitable works as we walk our spiritual journey together.

Confirmation during the Eucharist helps underline the unity of the sacraments of Christian initiation. (CCC, no. 1321). The connection between Confirmation and Baptism is also reflected in choosing of a name by which the candidate will be confirmed, especially when the chosen name is one of the names by which the candidate was baptized. • The Minister of Confirmation - In the early Church, sacramental initiation always involved the bishop; the bishop was the ordinary minister of both Baptism and Confirmation. However, pastoral practice changed as the Church expanded rapidly. When bishops could no longer be present at all celebrations of Baptism, they chose to retain a role in the process of initiation by continuing to be the ordinary minister of Confirmation. With the bishop as the minister of Confirmation, it is evident how this Sacrament can serve to strengthen the person's bond with the Church and her apostolic origins. However, there are also times when the bishop entrusts the celebration of the rite of Confirmation to a priest, such as in the case of the Baptism of an adult or the reception of an adult from another Christian community into full communion with the Church. Bishops may also give this permission in other cases. As the words of liturgy indicate, the person being confirmed is sealed with the Holy Spirit. This seal is called a character, marking the person forever as called to fulfill the Church's mission in all circumstances of life.

SACRAMENTS OF INITIATION: The Sacrament of the Holy Spirit: The reception of the sacrament of Confirmation is necessary for the completion of baptismal grace... "By the sacrament of Confirmation {the baptized} are more perfectly bound to the Church and are enriched with a special strength of the Holy Spirit." - (CCC, no 1285) In the Sacrament of Confirmation, the baptized person is "sealed with the gift of the Holy Spirit" and is strengthened for service to the Body of Christ. The prophets of the Old Testament foretold that God's Spirit would rest upon the Messiah to sustain His mission. Their prophecy was fulfilled when Jesus the Messiah was conceived by the Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. The Holy Spirit descended on Jesus on the occasion of His baptism by John. Jesus' entire mission occurred in communion with the Spirit. Before He died, Jesus promised that the Spirit would be given to the Apostles and to the entire Church. After His death, He was raised by the Father in the power of the Spirit. • The Liturgy of Confirmation - The signs, symbols, ritual acts, and words of the liturgy speak to us of the meaning of a Sacrament and of what Christ enacts in the event through His ministers and the disposition of the candidate. With this in mind, we Reflect on the following elements of Confirmation: the anointing with sacred Chrism, the recipient, the essential rite, the ministers, and the effects of the Sacrament. • The Anointing with Sacred Chrism - The post-baptismal anointing with sacred chrism in Confirmation...is the sign of consecration...those who are anointed, share more completely in the mission of Jesus Christ. (CCC, no 1294). The sacred Chrism the bishop consecrates at the Chrism Mass, is used to anoint the newly baptized, to confer the Sacrament of Confirmation, and to anoint bishops and priests during the celebration of the Sacrament of Holy Orders. Anointing with oil has many meanings such as cleansing as part of a bath, limbering up the muscles of athletes, and healing wounds of the sick. Two other sacramental celebrations make use of blessed oil: "The pre-baptismal anointing with the oil of catechumens signifies cleansing and strengthening; the anointing of the sick expresses healing and comfort (CCC, no 1294). The Oil of Catechumens is used in Baptism. The Oil of the Sick is used for the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. • The Recipient of Confirmation - Each baptized person not yet confirmed can and should receive the Sacrament of Confirmation. It is customary to confirm candidates between the age of discretions, also called the age of reason, at about 16 years of age. It is not uncommon that Catholics not confirmed during this period of their lives for a variety of reasons are confirmed as adults. The candidate should be in the state of grace (that is, without serious sin), be well prepared by prayer and catechesis, and be committed to the responsibilities entailed by the Sacrament. • The Essential Rite of Confirmation - In continuity with the New Testament custom of laying hands on those who receive the gift of the Spirit, the bishop extends his two hands over all those to be confirmed. He recites a prayer that begs the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit and for the seven gifts traditionally associated with the Spirit. These gifts are permanent dispositions that move us to respond to the guidance of the Spirit. The traditional list of the gifts is based on Isaiah 11:1-3: wisdom, understanding, knowledge, counsel, fortitude, piety (reverence), and fear of the Lord (wonder and awe in God's presence). The essential rite then follows. "The Sacrament of Confirmation is conferred through the anointing with Chrism on the forehead, which is done by the laying on of hands, and through the words, 'Be sealed with the gift of the Holy Spirit.'" When Confirmation is celebrated separately from Baptism, its connection with Baptism is expressed, among other ways, by the renewal of baptismal promises. The celebration of
