COLUMBIAN SQUIRES TRAVELING VOCATIONS

CHALICE: We invite all parishioners to sign up to take the chalice into their homes and to pray for vocations. Prayers are included with the chalice, but we encourage you to also include your own. If you have any questions, or are interested in having the chalice in your home, please call Elias Maez at 550-7817.

"Go into the whole world and proclaim the gospel to every creature. Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved; whoever does not believe will be condemned. These signs will accompany those who believe: in my name they will drive out demons, they will speak new languages. They will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover." - Mk 16:15b-17, 18c

OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE MISSION STATEMENT: In sharing with others our faith, experience, and earthly goods, we grow in faith and are living the missionary call that goes out to all believers. Our pastor, Fr. Hoi Tran, our ministers, and all our parishioners extend our arms in welcome to all others not in our worshipping community to worship with us and to assist us with your prayers and charitable works as we walk our spiritual journey together.

We also invite all children who just made their 1st Holy Communion to join us for the Corpus Christi Mass and procession.

YOU DID IT FOR ME: Simon grew up on food from Catholic Relief Services (CRS). Now he is helping to build a new nation. Simon lost his father during the war in Sudan and fled with family to safety at a displaced persons camp. Little did he know that his time there would pave the way to a career with the agency that fed him: Catholic Relief Services. Now South Sudan is an independent nation and Simon is leading communities in building the future. Food is used as payment for the hard work residents are investing into projects like building roads and dikes. "What they did in 1995 for me as a child is what I'm doing now others," says Simon.

ASCENSION OF THE LORD: On the 40th day after His Resurrection, after having trained His Apostles for their high calling to establish the Kingdom of God on earth, Jesus prepared to ascend on high to where the glories of heaven awaited Him. He blessed His loving Mother and His Apostles and disciples and bade them farewell. A cloud received Him out of their sight. The countless blessed spirits whom He had released from limbo accompanied Him as the first fruits of the redemption. All the hosts of heaven's Angels came out to meet Him, the Savior of the world. As He took His place beside His heavenly Father, the whole court of heaven gave forth a glorious song of praise. It was the song heard by John in his visions: "Worthy is the Lamb That was slain to receive power and wealth, wisdom and might, honor and glory and praise!" (Rev 5:12). Jesus ascended into heaven to enter into possession of His glory. While on earth He had always enjoyed the vision of God, but the glory of His Sacred Humanity had shone forth only at His Transfiguration. On His Ascension into heaven He took His place as Man beside His heavenly Father and was exalted above all other human creatures. The night before He died Jesus prayed to His Father: "I have glorified You on earth by finishing the work You gave Me to do. Do You now, Father, glorify Me at Your side, with the glory I had in Your presence before the world began" (Jn 17:4-5). Since His Humanity is united to the Divine Work, the second Person of the Blessed Trinity. It enjoys the right of eternal glory. It shares with the Father the infinite bliss and mighty power of God. This is the reward for all He has done and merited on earth. In heaven He is raised above all because on earth He has lowered Himself below all. When the struggle of this life is over Jesus will give us the grace to share His joy and triumph in heaven for all eternity. Jesus ascended into heaven to be our Mediator with the Father. There He is pleading for us. He ascended into heaven to give an account to His heavenly Father of the great work He had done on earth. The Church was born, grace springs up in abundance from His Cross of Calvary and is distributed through the Sacraments. God's justice is satisfied, hell and death are conquered, heaven is opened and man is saved. Jesus had a right to this glorious homecoming. Christ's Ascension is also the assurance of our own ascension into heaven after the Last Judgment. He entered into His Kingdom to prepare a place for us, for He promised to come again to take us to Himself. Let us ascento into heaven with Jesus in spirit, there to dwell by faith, hope and charity. Let us seek only the joys that are true!

PRAYER ON THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

Jesus, I honor You on the feast of Your Ascension into heaven. I rejoice with all my heart at the glory into which You entered to reign as King of heaven and earth. When the struggle of this life is over, give me the grace to share Your joy and triumph in heaven for all eternity. I believe that You entered into Your glorious Kingdom to prepare a place for me, for You promised to come again to take me to Yourself. Grant that I may seek only the joys of Your friendship and love, so that I may deserve to be united with You in heaven. In the hour of my own homecoming, when I appear before Your Father to give an account of my life on earth have mercy on me. Jesus, in Your love for me You have brought me from evil to good and from misery to happiness. Give me the grace to rise above my human weakness. May Your Humanity give me courage in my weakness and free me from my sins. Through Your grace give me the courage of perseverance, for You have called and justified me by faith.

Amen.
