PARISH NEWS

ARCHDIOCESAN SECOND COLLECTION: For Peter's Pence will be taken up next weekend. The Peter's Pence collection enables the Holy Father to respond with emergency financial assistance to aid the most needy throughout the world— those who suffer as a result of war, oppression, and natural disasters. It like wise provides the faithful with a tangible opportunity to not only empower the weak, defenseless, and voiceless, but also sustain those who suffer. Please be generous.

THANK YOU: To all who participated in the annual Vacation Bible School and Service Project. The success of this event came from the generosity and gifts of many wonderful people in the parish. We especially thank the ladies that took from their busy schedules to help. The Bake Sale raised $905.00, the family was very appreciative. Again thank you - Faith Formation Office and Youth Ministry.

PLEASE NOTE: Those who are in ministry, and are 18 years old, or will soon be 18 and older, are required by the Archdiocese of Santa Fe to take the Abuse Awareness Class, sponsored by the Archdiocese of Santa Fe. The parish will host a class on Saturday, July 25th from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. (noon). For any questions, or to register, please call the Faith Formation Office - 869-6993.

ADVANCE NOTICE: There will be NO Baptism class next Saturday, July 4th.

ALTAR SERVERS TRAINING: For those who have made their 1st Holy Communion and would like to join the Altar's Servers Ministry. Training will take place today following the 11:15 a.m. Mass. .

MARRIAGE ENRICHMENT WEEKEND: Queen of Heaven Parish, July 31st, Aug. 1st & 2nd. For more information or to register, please call 881-1772.

ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL UPDATE: May 31st 2015 report: Number of families registered - 696; parish goal - $31,500.00; $20,775.00 pledge; $14,185.00 paid; shortfall - 10,725, if all pledges are met.

CHILDREN'S GRIEF MINISTRY TRAINING: If you have a heart for helping children grieve the loss of a loved one due to death, divorce, or separation in healthy ways, then the upcoming Facilitator Training for Children's Grief Ministry is for you. The 3-part training will take place on June 24, July 1, July 8, from 6:00 to 8 :00 p.m. at the Catholic Center near St. Pius High School. The training is free and open to anyone interested in becoming certified for this ministry. To register, call the Family Life Office at 831-8117.

YOU DID IT FOR ME: Simon grew up on food from Catholic Relief Services (CRS). Now he is helping to build a new nation. Simon lost his father during the war in Sudan and fled with family to safety at a displaced persons camp. Little did he know that his time there would pave the way to a career with the agency that fed him: Catholic Relief Services. Now South Sudan is an independent nation and Simon is leading communities in building the future. Food is used as payment for the hard work residents are investing into projects like building roads and dikes. "What they did in 1995 for me as a child is what I'm doing now for others," says Simon.

On June 29 the Church celebrates the feast day of Sts. Peter & Paul. As early as the year 258, there is evidence of an already lengthy tradition of celebrating the solemnities of both Saint Peter and Saint Paul on the same day. Together, the two saints are the founders of the See of Rome, through their preaching, ministry and martyrdom there. Peter, who was named Simon, was a fisherman of Galilee and was introduced to the Lord Jesus by his brother Andrew, also a fisherman. Jesus gave him the name Cephas (Petrus in Latin), which means 'Rock,' because he was to become the rock upon which Christ would build His Church. Peter was a bold follower of the Lord. He was the first to recognize that Jesus was "the Messiah, the Son of the living God," and eagerly pledged his fidelity until death. In his boldness, he also made many mistakes, however, such as losing faith when walking on water with Christ and betraying the Lord on the night of His passion. Yet despite his human weaknesses, Peter was chosen to shepherd God's flock. The Acts of the Apostles illustrates his role as head of the Church after the Resurrection and Ascension of Christ. Peter led the Apostles as the first Pope and ensured that the disciples kept the true faith. St. Peter spent his last years in Rome, leading the Church through persecution and eventually being martyred in the year 64. He was crucified upside-down at his own request, because he claimed he was not worthy to die as his Lord. He was buried on Vatican hill, and St. Peter's Basilica is built over his tomb. St. Paul was the Apostle of the Gentiles. His letters are included in the writings of the New Testament, and through them we learn much about his life and the faith of the early Church. Before receiving the name Paul, he was Saul, a Jewish Pharisee who zealously persecuted Christians in Jerusalem. Scripture records that Saul was present at the martyrdom of St. Stephen. Saul's conversion took place as he was on his way to Damascus to persecute the Christian community there. As he was traveling along the road, he was suddenly surrounded by a great light from heaven. He was blinded and fell off his horse. He then heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?" He answered: "Who are you, Lord?" Christ said: "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting." Saul continued to Damascus, where he was baptized and his sight was restored. He took the name Paul and spent the remainder of his life preaching the Gospel tirelessly to the Gentiles of the Mediterranean world. Paul was imprisoned and taken to Rome, where he was beheaded in the year 67. He is buried in Rome in the Basilica of St. Paul Outside the Walls. In a sermon in the year 395, St. Augustine of Hippo said of Sts. Peter and Paul: "Both apostles share the same feast day, for these two were one; and even though they suffered on different days, they were as one. Peter went first, and Paul followed. And so we celebrate this day made holy for us by the apostles' blood. Let us embrace what they believed, their life, their labors, their sufferings, their preaching, and their confession of faith."

PRAYER TO ST. PETER & PAUL

Blessed Redeemer, Saints Peter and Paul were leaders and models in strengthening the faith of the infant Church, and I ask them to pray for my faith to grow strong. Saint Paul wrote in his second letter to Saint Timothy, "I remind you to stir into flame the gift of God that you have." Wherever I am still a baby in my relationship with You, weak and uncertain, I ask Saints Peter and Paul to pray for me to grow into spiritual maturity. Help me, O Lord, to increase in faith and trust. Where Your presence is but a spark in me, fan it into a flame that brightens other people's lives. Saints Peter and Paul, pray for me. Amen. -
