2ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servers, "Do whatever he tells you." - Jn 2:3-

OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE MISSION STATEMENT: In sharing with others our faith, experience, and earthly goods, we grow in faith and are living the missionary call by Our Lord Jesus Christ that goes out to all believers. Our pastor, Fr. Hoi Tran, our ministers, and all our parishioners extend our arms in welcome to all others not in our worshipping community to worship with us and to assist us with your prayers and charitable works as we walk our spiritual journey together.

PASTORAL COUNCIL MEETING: Will meet on Thursday, January 21st at 7:00 p.m. in the parish office.

DEAR PARISHIONERS: Re: Dissolving of the Cemetery Committee: Article II of Our Lady of Guadalupe Cemetery Committee By-Laws, the purpose of the “Cemetery Committee was to be a consultative board to the pastor.” Unfortunately the committee became the decision-maker, not advisory as was intended. Therefore I decided to dissolve the Cemetery Committee immediately. I will begin to establish a new Cemetery Advisory Board as soon as possible. I hope with the Advisory Board, we can work together and make the cemetery a place to remember, to heal and to pray. Anyone interested in becoming a member of the Cemetery Advisory Board, is asked to please call the Parish Office. The Parish Office Staff and I will handle all funeral arrangements and cemetery matters. Pastor, Father Hoi Tran.

Q Why do we have a liturgical season called ordinary time? Can you explain?

A Ordinary time is the longest season of the liturgical year. It begins the Monday after January 6, the Epiphany, and goes until the Tuesday before Ash Wednesday, the beginning of Lent. That period can last anywhere from five to eight weeks, depending on when Easter is celebrated. Ordinary time picks up again the Monday after Pentecost Sunday and lasts from twenty-three to twenty-seven weeks, until the end of the liturgical year, the Saturday before Advent begins.

Why the name ordinary? “Ordinary” is not in contrast to “extraordinary” or “special” but rather stresses the Latin language notion of “ordinal” or numbered Sundays. The Latin title for the season, tempus ordinarium, conveys the sense that this time of the year is measured or numbered time. Measured time can allude simply to the numbered Sundays, or the notion that these Sundays are a “measured” time to deepen and immerse ourselves completely in the realities of Jesus’ incarnation, ministry, passion, death, and resurrection.

Ordinary time offers us the measured opportunity to connect the ordinary lived experiences of our lives with those of Jesus, who modeled for us how to live a truly human existence. As we experience the season of ordinary time, let us immerse ourselves in the extraordinary task of deepening our relationship with Christ in the ordinary events of life.

Everyday Stewardship

When I look back over my life I see so many people who played an important role in my becoming who I am today. Some of them taught me about life, some shared with me stories that made me feel more human, and some showed me how God loves us by mirroring that unconditional love, even if it was imperfectly. At the top of the list of these influential people certainly are my parents, my teachers, my pastors, and now even my wife. I often tell my children that in many ways we are the sum of our experiences and certainly the experiences of family and friendship craft us profoundly. These people are gifts. Plain and simple, they are some of the greatest gifts God will ever give to each of us. The commandment to honor thy mother and father has much greater implications for us than simply the need for us to obey parents or authority. Inherent in the commandment is the need for respect of anyone God has given to us in this life to mold and shape us. By honoring God’s gift to us, we honor the One who created them. Jesus received more at his birth than the gifts from the certainly gifts worth more than any precious metals or oil. The story of the wedding feast in Cana speaks of his response to those gifts, particularly his mother. It was out of honor that he complied with Mary’s request. One could say it was his great sense of stewardship that compelled him to honor the gift he had been given. By his actions, he gave us an example of how we must honor God’s gifts of our loved ones. At the end of the day, these gifts are more valuable than a gift any earthly king might offer.
