"My family has all gone back to Texas for jobs and I need to find a way to take care of myself. I am blessed by my church and the free rides I get at Catholic Charities. I schedule my doctor appointments and call right away to set a ride. It is easy and allows me to stay independent." Volunteer drivers are always needed and welcomed. Q My daughter-in-law will be baptized this year and we want to show our support and how happy we are for her. What kinds of gifts or celebrations could we consider?

A Everyone in the church community has a role to play in the formation and instruction of those who are seeking baptism. The candidates receive not only theological instruction and spiritual formation but also incorporation into the social and community life of the church. It's more than a good idea; it is the very identity of who we are as a parish and as the universal church. People make up the church and it is into our church and our parish that the baptized come. That help and support is needed long after baptism, because ongoing formation helps the person grow stronger in their practice and understanding of faith. This might be a good place to start when considering what to do for someone for his or her baptism or confirmation.

Of course, gifts are always personal expressions of love and support. Religious articles are always a good choice—a Bible, rosary, crucifix, or prayer book can inspire and encourage the newly baptized. More importantly, the gift of your spiritual support is even better. Praying with her, going to Mass together, teaching her your family's religious traditions, or sharing your own faith builds family bonds and encourages everyone to practice faith together.

Completing the RCIA is not an end, but a new beginning that you can support. Sharing our faith and our love is the best gift we give each other.

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord
Easter is the day when all things are tumbled over like the colored eggs that children roll in the grass. The stone from the tomb is rolled away. Christ, the Lamb of God, redeems the sheep. The Prince of life, who died, now lives forever. Death is swallowed up by the grave and Life itself comes forth from the tomb. As the psalmist writes: "The stone the builders rejected has become the cornerstone. By the LORD has this been done; it is wonderful in our eyes" (Ps 118:22-23).

We have grown up with the notion of resurrection. The rising of Christ has been part of our religious upbringing. It is so much a part of our culture that the mystery of this great event may escape us. But imagine Mary Magdalene coming to the tomb early in the morning and finding the body of Jesus gone. Then Peter and the other disciple run to the tomb after she brings them the news. The Gospel makes it clear that they did not understand the Scripture that Jesus had to rise from the dead. They must have felt their world shaken apart by this great mystery! And here we are, two thousand years later, calmly proclaiming, "He suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day." This incredible mystery, this miraculous event, this saving action that we celebrate on this feast is the most incredible thing to happen since the foundation of the world. The Lord has been raised from the tomb and he lives in our midst. Just as the Resurrection turned over the lives of the disciples and changed them forever, so too does the rising of Christ from the dead make a difference in our lives. Because he lives we can be free from the power of sin. The living Christ gives us the Spirit that empowers us to act in his name and to live like him, filled with life and love.
