16TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Someone in the crowd said to Jesus, "Teacher, tell my brother to share the inheritance with me." He replied to him, "Friend, who appointed me as your judge and arbitrator?" Then he said to the crowd, "Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions." - Lk 12:13-15

OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE MISSION STATEMENT: In sharing with others our faith, experience, and earthly goods, we grow in faith and are living the missionary call by Our Lord Jesus Christ that goes out to all believers. Our pastor, Fr. Hoi Tran, our ministers, and all our parishioners extend our arms in welcome to all others not in our worshipping community to worship with us and to assist us with your prayers and charitable works as we walk our spiritual journey together.

World Youth Day
 "Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy" is the theme for the World Youth Day in 2016. The Catholic youth of the world will meet in Krakow Poland to celebrate their faith and learn and teach about their place and responsibilities in the world. Pope John Paul II, now a saint, started the World Youth Day in 1984, after a Synod of Bishops on youth. Every pope has kept the thrice yearly celebration.

The gathering of youth is truly a sign of hope for the future. Together, with our youth, we pray for safety and rich rewards:

Loving Father,
 you sent your only Son into the world
 to show us that he is the way, the truth, and the life.
 Give our youth the grace and courage to follow your Son as they journey toward you.

May this World Youth Day inspire our youth to give witness to the joy of the gospel,
 to be a sign of hope to our world,
 and to lead others to know your mercy.

Send forth your Holy Spirit to guide and protect them.
 Lead them to know your loving care,
 and bless the work of their hands and hearts.

We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Q Why can't everyone who wants to receive Communion, receive Communion at Mass?
 Social organizations have all sorts of requirements for membership: dues, academic achievements, professional standing, even a specific national origin. We rarely question them and accept them as a fact of life. The requirements help the group focus on its common interests, purposes, and goals. Everyone can't help but see why.

A The church's basic requirement for membership and receiving sacraments, it's a relationship with God. We happen to call it faith. Faith allows the church to be one, focused on spreading the good news of love and carrying on his mission of teaching, preaching, healing and forgiving. It is the practice of faith, participating in the work of the church, that makes one worthy to receive Communion. The word itself comes from the Latin word that means sharing.

For non-Catholics, because they do not share in the union of faith, they are excluded from receiving Communion. For Catholics, if guilty of serious sin, they too are excluded from the sacrament until they are reconciled, or restored to the mission of the church. Why? Because sin separates us from the work of the church. Communion is the culmination of our union with God and His people, not the beginning point. We receive what we in fact are, the body of Christ—the Holy, Catholic and apostolic.

18TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME: In fiscal 2012, lottery sales in the United States averaged approximately $250 per person. Forty-three states and the District of Columbia accounted for that $78 billion in sales. It was in March 2012 that the largest prize to date ($656 million) was split between three winners. While it is clear that many people enjoy playing the lottery recreationally, a question that is often asked is, "What does someone do with all that money?" Of course, that particular problem has not seemed to bother those who play regularly. Indeed, the largest jackpots, far from being a deterrent, end up provoking an even greater number of players, who seem intent on turning a single dollar into a large fortune.

The Gospel this weekend offers a perspective on the material world. While possessions are needed, Jesus says, "One's life does not consist of possessions" (Lk 12:15). This comment by Jesus is not something new to any of us. We have heard this all before. But we also know that there is wisdom in storing up for ourselves. As a matter of fact, saving for the future is an act of personal responsibility. We are constantly told to save for retirement, to have a rainy-day fund, to set aside something for a vacation instead of going into debt to take one. All of these actions are so we don't become overly dependent on the social fabric and cause an undue burden on others. There is a difference between having a sufficiency and having an excess. When our desire for an excess outstrips our reasonableness and our need, then we are flirting with greed, the very thing that the Gospel warns against. Yes, we may work hard, and save for the future. We may even win the lottery. But when we have more than we need the Lord expects that we use it not just for ourselves but also for others. What we do with the blessings we have makes all the difference.
